LOCAL AREA

Conderton and Overbury is situated within the Cotswold National Landscape on the border of Worcestershire and Gloucestershire.

On the southern slopes of Bredon Hill there is a small early years nursery, primary school, a village hall, a bowling club and a cricket club. The villages have community at heart which means you will be joining a positive, thriving and engaged rural village. The surrounding countryside provides miles of unspoilt walks right from the doorstep and to the north, the house is surrounded by a community orchard.

Broadway is 11 miles east and is a large village regarded by many as one of the Cotswolds' finest examples of traditional street architecture. It has a wide range of shops for day-to-day requirements together with restaurants, The Regency Spa town of Cheltenham offers extensive shopping facilities and high street shops, restaurants and bars as well as a wide selection of excellent schools. As well as those in Cheltenham there are several other good schools locally including The Elms and Malvern College. Local train services to London Paddington run from Cheltenham Spa and Evesham. Ashchurch station has services to Birmingham and Bristol.
